

WHO ARE WE?

The Hamilton name is synonymous with high quality decorating tools, unsurprisingly as we have been developing and refining our product offering for nearly 3 centuries.

We specialise in the design, manufacture, marketing and supply of quality brushes, rollers and tools to UK decorators, tradesmen and experienced DIY'ers, enabling them to meet their decorating aspirations.

We use our extensive knowledge, expertise and close relationships to ensure that we create products that allow customers to sell, and consumers to use, the very best tools for the job.

We regularly consult our end users to develop new and improved products by way of our Decorators panel. This panel also involves coating manufacturers and material developers.
